

Erase

Disciple

Come lift up your eyes and look into mine
Try to see what I see
Your mind has not been a friend
It chokes you within
And makes truth look like a demon
Rewinding these memories, suffering every night
I've been watching you, hoping you see the truth
And run to the light

When you say you're not ok
My heart it breaks to heal your pain
I will erase your yesterday
You'll be ok
My love is greater than your mistake

I can't make you believe
Shame doesn't have to be your true identity
I still will not go away as long as it takes
I will keep your soul breathing

When you say you're not ok
My heart it breaks to heal your pain
I will erase your yesterday
You'll be ok
My love is greater than this
Forget every regret
I'll make perfection from this mess
I will erase your yesterday
You'll be ok
My love is greater than your mistake

You are not alone
You are not alone
You are not alone
You are not alone

When you say you're not ok
My heart it breaks to heal your pain
I will erase your yesterday
You'll be ok
My love is greater than this
Forget every regret
I'll make perfection from this mess
I will erase your yesterday
You'll be ok
My love is greater than your mistake
