

Love Hate (On and On)

Disciple

A little one that's full of innocence
He doesn't know that something's out of place
Another one dreams murder all night
He's been living full of hatred all his life

Well, I guess it's always been this way
A world that's full of love and hate
Oh God, but will it stay this way?
So much love, so much hate

It goes on and on and on around and again

A mother is willing to give her life
While another one throws away her child
A son stands and he turns the other cheek
While another one spits in a face while it bleeds

This evil that's within is hiding in our skin
What are we? When will we?
Why are we still wondering?

Oh Jesus, I can't take the hate anymore
Save us from ourselves before
We go on and on and on around and again
