

Looking For Love

Disclosure

I'm looking for love from everybody right now
I got this hole here in my heart
Left me drowning at the bottom
And I don't know how to come back up
I'm trying to let go, pretend to turn it all around
Say I can float above it all
Tread some water but I know that
I'm still sinking like a cannon ball

I'm looking for love from everybody right now
I got this hole here in my heart
And I don't know how to come back up
I'm trying to let go, pretend to turn it all around
Say I can float above it all
Tread some water but I know that
I'm still sinking like a cannon ball
