Disclosure

I only see you and I
In a crowded room, you're my decision
Oh, we been blurrin' the lines
In a crowded room, I guess I kissed him, kissed him

Oh, now, baby, hold on, hold on
Pushed you back for so long, oh
And I'm all out of good excuses now, baby
Alright, alright
I can't wait one more night, oh
I give up, I give in, I can't take it

Won't you please
Pour your loving over me
All your loving over me
Like a waterfall baby
Won't you please
Pour your loving over me
All your loving over me
I need you to
Let your water fall
Oh, baby, let me feel it all

This may be a mistake
But I want your tattoos on my shoulders
If you was bourbon and pain, mhm
I'd raise you to the sky and toast this, hopeless

Oh, now, baby hold on, hold on
Pushed you back for so long, oh
And I'm all out of good excuses now, baby
Alright, alright
I can't wait one more night, oh
I give up, I give in, I can't take it

Won't you please
Pour your loving over me
All your loving over me
Like a waterfall baby
Won't you please
Pour your loving over me
All your loving over me
I need you to
Let your water fall
Oh, baby, let me feel it all (Yeah)

Give me something to live for
Give me something to love
Give me someone to hold on to
I'll put nothing above
Give me something to live for

Give me something to feel
Give me something to hold on to Give me something that's real

Never had a lover like you, no
It's the kind of lovin' I do want
Settled so I'm settling
Love him and I'm tellin' him
Got a good girl in her element, yeah

Settled so I'm settling
Love him and I'm tellin' him
Got a good girl in her element

Won't you please
