

1000 Years

Disco Ensemble

Head in the clouds, trapped in a void,
You swallow the lies that gave you a voice.
You're in design trustful and true,
You sing for the skies, for who sings for you.

If you wait for a thousand years
You can wait for a thousand more.
For a shining time to appear,
Wait, if you wait, stay right here.

What you don't know you hate and condemn,
Your message will reach only yourself in the end.
Atoms in lines, flowers in bloom,
Why you embrace the hymn of doom?

If you wait for a thousand years
You can wait for a thousand more.
For a shining time to appear,
Wait, if you wait, stay right here.

Atoms in lines, flowers in bloom,
Why you embrace a hymn of doom?

Get your dirty hands off my soul,
Get your hands off my soul.

If you wait for a thousand years
You can wait for a thousand more.
For a shining time to appear,
Wait, if you wait, stay right here.
