

Sink Your Teeth In

Disco Ensemble

Kick in the spurs and sink your teeth in
Shout with an empty glance
May I have this dance

My knees are shaking and the horizon blurs
As my head hits the floor
I thought I had you cuffed
I thought you'd always be the same
This connection is built between the wounded hearts
And this love is already broken

Now wrap your fist around my heart and
Sink your teeth in
Now wrap your fingers around my neck and
Sink your teeth in

The watertowers guard the hope that's lost
And never coming back
I thought I held you right
I thought you'd always be the same
This connection is built between the wounded hearts
And this love is already broken

Kick in the spurs and sink your teeth in
Shout with an empty glance
Can I have this dance
This is the last dance
