

Hey Boy

Discoballs

Get to know her and then show her
You're the one you're stronger than anyone
Quickly snatch her try to touch her
And then say: fly away!
You girl stun him pretend you love him
Make him trust you always anywhere
Later rob him finally swap him
And then say: fly away!

Hey boy! Don't forget it's just a game
Hey girl! Don't you have enough?
Betcha suppose it's all in your hands

Then you must hush her
Don't ever push her
Love her more than she could ever stand
Love her miss her
And still kiss her
Never say: fly away!

Don't you ever
try to change him
girl you know it would be best to let go
Take your time
To show your patience
Never say: fly away!

So get sober
Cause this game is over
For you booooy!
