

Bringer Of Demise

Discretion

"Bringer Of Demise"

I have sworn an oath
That can't be broken
Baal is my witness
It's sealed with blood

I will be your nemesis
Your dominance will end
Roman blood shall flow in streams
My name you'll whisper in fear

From looming mountains
We will descend
Massive hordes and nameless beasts
And you're the last to know

I command my armies
Deadly and precise
My wisdom is unmatched
Yet I'll be the first in the fray

Conqueror
March with me
Conqueror
Fight with me

Bringer of demise
I see fear in your eyes
Driven by an iron will
My army waits, ready to kill

Bringer of war
Before me you will crawl
You know that your fate is sealed
When we meet on the battlefield

Only the fearless
Can persevere
Between victory and death
All roads are blocked

All out war - don't hesitate
Strike with boiling hate
Either kill or you'll be killed
I'm waiting at your gates

Conqueror
March with me
Conqueror
Fight with me

Bringer of demise
I see fear in your eyes
Driven by an iron will
My army waits, ready to kill

Bringer of war
Before me you will crawl
You know that your fate is sealed
When we meet on the battlefield

May God have mercy
Because I won't
Either I will find a way
Or make one of my own

Conqueror
March with me
Conqueror
Fight with me

Conqueror
March with me
Conqueror
Die with me
