

Falling Backwards in Time

Discreation

We've made the wrong decisions
Broke rules for higher values
No boundaries left for us
Last option falls apart
The last resorts sold out
Just illusions to offer
And manage the anger

Chorus:

We are marching
To the point of no return
The last chapter of humanity
We are tumbling down
Falling backwards in time

Although we knew what was coming
We followed the path to ruin
Crucial signs we did ignore
Benefits are what we crave for
Create wealth without regrets
Spread hate and reckless dwelling
Dysfunction of the human mind
So we will march on
Marching on
To the point of no return
Marching on
Chorus
