

The Silence of the Gods

Discretion

Listen to me children
For I speak the truth
I'll show you that there's no heaven
You will never burn in hell
No one will forgive your sins
No judgement day will ever come
Terror without an end
You can't judge me
Your truth is your truth alone
I follow my own path
Don't tell me how to live my life
Wash your sins away
Wash your sins away with blood
No voice to hear
No signs to see
No confession to make
No rules to break
No sin to confess
No master to serve
I won't bow down
The silence of the gods
Centuries of torment

And misleading lies
Bloodshed, rape and murder
Have always been the price
Burn these pages
That cost so many lives
Desecrate the altars
Praise everything profane
You can't judge me
Your truth is your truth alone
I follow my own path
Don't tell me how to life my life
Wash your sins away
Wash your sins away with blood
No voice to hear
No signs to see
No confession to make
No rules to break
No sin to confess
No master to serve
I won't bow down
The silence of the gods
