

Digitus Medius

Discrepancies

Digitus medius up in the air for those who oppose the way that we live
Now bring them back down, under the crowd to show them how many we give We seem to be locked inside of a box of expectation or Infinite stares from visions impaired for ones who dare to be more Complain Instead of accepting the change they make us ashamed of who we are So open my gash compare and contrast the blood we draw
Don't worry about what they're worried about just bury your doubts and live
And open your eyes to what it could be instead of what is

Nothing can save you
Get ready cause here comes the storm
If you're not broken in physical form
Then I guess it's safe to say
I can break you
If you're not careful in conversation
Before and after the altercation
You might get carried away

Digitus Medius up in the air for those that oppose the way that we rock
We have what you need, and so we proceed they're hoping one day that we'll s top
This is the plot, reach for the top, giving it all we got watch
Steady ready aim squeeze, I'm telling you this is our shot
We are taking off
Expect a collision, reckless decisions, treacherous mission
Check the ballistics, best if you listen, we will project this vision
Sit back and watch
No hidden agenda, this is adventure, we will ascend ya, we will offend ya
We don't intend to, we don't pretend to be anything we're not

Nothing can save you
Get ready cause here comes the storm
If you're not broken in physical form
Then I guess it's safe to say
I can break you
If you're not careful in conversation
Before and after the altercation
You might get carried away

I'm not really the violent type
But I know when it's time to fight
So if you like your life, better state your case
Now the angers increased
There's no taming this beast
Once it is released it will break your face
I'm not really the violent type
