

Limitless

Discrepancies

In the beginning we cultivated a vision
No contenders and no pretenders now we know what's within us and why
Career's a thriller
Cause every members a killer
We've decimated the ceiling
Now our limits all end in the sky
Now that you've awakened
Rise to the occasion
Set your pride aside
Strive to be amazing
Try to keep the pace
But not to be complacent
If I could keep my patience
I could lead the nation

Till my last breath I'll brave through hell
I won't lose heart, no soul I'll sell
Burn my white flag, I'll never rest
No holding back, I'm limitless

Keep your friends close
And keep your enemies close too
But the ones that will support you the most
Won't even know you
They'll be open and raw
Cause there's no motive involved
While the person you thought would lift you up
Is hoping you fall
Always asking for the most, but never invest time
Can't even share a post, and that's a direct sign
Pay attention to what I wrote that'll be the headline
Neglect to respect mine, there'll never be next time
Always wanna give up instead of sticking it out
If I wasn't your crutch I'll bet you'd figure it out
Always asking for stuff that I don't ever give out
Like let me borrow your trust and benefit of the doubt (nah)

Till my last breath I'll brave through hell
I won't lose heart, no soul I'll sell
Burn my white flag, I'll never rest
No holding back, I'm limitless

You will respect my name
I won't bow down, you'll never change my destiny
I won't bow down, you will respect my name

Till my last breath
(Now that you've awakened, rise to the occasion)
I'm limitless
(If I can keep my patience, I can lead the nation)

Till my last breath I'll brave through hell
I won't lose heart, no soul I'll sell
Burn my white flag, I'll never rest
No holding back, I'm limitless

Burn my white flag, I'll never rest

No holding back, I'm limitless
