

Recovery

Discrepancies

Don't throw away your chance to change
It's only temporary pain

I bet they say what a wonderful guy
Who woulda knew that he wanted to die
Broken dreams and low self esteem
It seems these are the things we cover with pride
But he had to find a way to fight
So he worked on his craft through the days and night
And now tears down every stage in sight, damn
And to think he nearly paid the price
I guess it's more than a pencil and a pad when it saves a life

Don't throw away your chance to change
It's only temporary pain
Those better days aren't far away
Step by step to recovery
Step by step
To recovery
Step by step
To recovery

I think her beauty was one of a kind
Who woulda knew that she wanted to die
Broken dreams and low self-esteem
It seems these are the things we cover with pride
She'd try to take it one day at a time
But tonight was the night she had made up her mind
And then a couple friends invited her to a show
She had other plans but luckily she would go
She heard a song and it made her night
And through mutual pain found a way to fight, damn
And to think she nearly paid the price
I guess it's more than a pencil and a pad when it saves a life

Don't throw away your chance to change
It's only temporary pain
Those better days aren't far away
Step by step to recovery
Step by step
To recovery
Step by step
To recovery

You're not alone if you forgot I done said it before
We all cry and if not, then you better mature
You don't have to keep it bottled to settle the score
Deal with your problems or your solace will never be pure
It doesn't help to keep your head in the sand
Yeah, we all fall down no neglecting the plan
Rise and grind everyday we do the best that we can
And shedding tears doesn't now and will never make me less of a man
Always pedal to the metal whenever we ride
Through rough waters it's no effort to settle the tide
I'm right here through whatever the weather provides Always keep you by my side, together we rise

Don't throw away your chance to change
It's only temporary pain
Those better days aren't far away
Step by step to recovery
Step by step
To recovery
Step by step
To recovery