

Malphasian

Disembodied Tyrant

Inside this pit of rot, I reside
There's a being lurking in the dark
Their ever-glowing eyes
It's a sin to survive
The shepherd's calling lies
Pierce through your twisting, corrupted dreams

Wish that I could cut the cord that tethers me to them
Name a price I can't afford that you know I will pay
Rise, dry out your eyes, you'll witness life
Up the Mystic Tower high, relinquish your mind

"Begin."

Writhe and beg, writhe and fucking beg
Writhe and beg, writhe in fucking terror

I am sinking through series of veins
Interlinked, one of many, all the same
Razors carving tissue, organs spilling from you
Essence rended in two, degrading, abandoned
Guilt trots on the worthless, I fucking deserve it
Cry all you want, but they're rotting, abandoned

Death, death, degrading, abandoned, one in the same

Throw stones from your little hovel
Nothing comes to those who grovel
Dreaming of endless skies
Cradled in the arms of death

Sign your soul to my accord, avenge their dying breath
Name a price you can't afford that I know you must pay
Can you do this for me?

Take flight, champion of spite, set spire alight
Devil, soar the skies, fly
