

Reincarnate

Disembodied Tyrant

When the stars begin to turn black within
Immortal despair and petrified cold harken to faces unknown

Harken back to me
The light begins to dim as God withholds the day
Immortal despair and petrified cold harken to faces unknown

I; dead embodiment
I am an entity with defeated sanity
My previous corpses passing me
And I saw my death many a time
Yet again
Why won't God let this pain fucking
End

I am dying yet again
The noose is my heaven
I am decomposing
My psyche is broken beyond repair
Suicidal tendencies, oh mouth of Hell remember me

Tie the noose around my neck
I am dying yet again
The scream of my vertebrae snapping echoes throughout time and space
Within the few moments of silence and happiness
I smile with eyes filled with tears

I reawaken in yet another rotten
Shell of a corpse
I begin to repeat the process
I dig out my own intestines
