

Give Me a Sign

Dishwalla

You walked into the crowded room
On the first day of the past
I watched the conversations stop

Above the earth you made your way
As the tides did slowly part
I knew from then I had no choice

From the darkness to the spotlight
I will keep you trained in my sights
'Til I finally get the chance to know
How to find my way through the window

Where do you go
When the lights go down?
What do you scream
When there's no one around?
I've been waiting for you
For all of this time

Burning bright
Like a dying star
That's setting fire
To this endless dark
I've been waiting for you
Just give me a sign

Just give me a sign!

A new day opens up a door
To the one who'll stop the train
But you're still so weary from the war

I'm gonna climb to the Highest tower to shout

Call your armies to the rescue
All those scars they won't protect you
When you finally strip it all away
And let it all come in from the outside

Where do you go
When the lights go down?
What do you scream
When there's no one around?
Burning bright like a dying star
It's getting dark
Just give me a sign

How many times have you hit, bent or broken?
How many times can you give all for nothing?
How many things can you give up on wanting?

Where do you go
When the lights go down?
What do you scream
When there's no one around?

Burning bright like an dying star
That's setting fire to this endless dark

I've been waiting
Been waiting
Been waiting for you
To give me a sign

Just give me a sign

I'm still here waiting for you
I'm still here waiting for you
