

Not Alone

Dishwalla

I remember what its like
To hide behind in broken light
But now i fear for
What the future holds

Now and then when I'm asleep
The time is lapsed and everything
Is once again
Made brand new

The time is spent alone with you

And after all is said and done
The truth be told I'm not the one
And all the windows in the world
Reminds me how I'm not alone
Not alone..

I'm not alone
I'm not alone

I remember what its like
To hide behind a broken life
But now i fear for
What the future holds

Now and then when I'm asleep
The time is lapsed and everything
Is once again
Made brand new

The time is spent alone with you

And after all is said and done
The truth be told I'm not the one
All the windows in the world
Remind me how I'm not alone
Not alone

I'm not alone
I'm not alone
I'm not alone

After all is said and done
The truth be told I'm not the one
All the windows in the world
Remind me how I'm not alone
Not alone

I'm not alone
I'm not alone
I'm not alone
I'm not alone
