Sirens

Dishwalla

Sound out
Open your mind
All is just beginning Give yourself to the fall Here where all is taking Feel your world is alive
All we are is ending.

Over a hundred thousand times
we are brought back to the place
down on the ground

Rise up
Leave it behind you Forward into the unknown
as we cry through the air
like sirens

Lie back
Get on the ride
All is love around you Tune in Make yourself heard Before the silence is broken Turn on Open your mind
Hear the words not spoken

Over a hundred thousand times
we are brought back to the place
down on the ground

Rise up
Leave it behind you Forward into the unknown
as we cry through the air
like sirens

Rise up
Leave it behind you Forward into the unknown
as we cry through the air
like sirens
