

Swallowed

Disillusion

Free seem the clouds
Free from restrain
How they roam through my mind

How they roam through my mind,
Through the years

Their shadow laid upon me
Swallowed the laughter
I wore today

For all the love
And all the fears
Beneath my wings,
I'd trade in all that I know

Low lies the breath
Like a grey dust over sea
Like a snare - so tight
Only a waiting slave

And the sand runs way too fast,
Way too fast through my hands

And low lies the breath,
Like a grey dust over sea
And here I lay all swallowed

[Chorus]
