

Excess

Dismantled

I can't remember
What I did
Who I f*cked
What I said to your face
You know, it's all a big blur

I can't remember
What I ate
What I drank
What I chewed or spit out
It's all a big blur

I can't remember
If I stumbled
If I fell
Did I drag you along?
You know, it's all big blur

I can't remember
All the blood
All the vomit
Up the stairs, all the missed calls
It's all a big blur

But now I'm wide awake
And still in your arms
You forgave everything
I finally found the right one
I'm all about the excess, baby
I know you don't want it this way
But let me show you just how I
Love, love
I'll shove it down your throat

I'm all about the excess, baby
I know you don't want it this way
But let me show you just how I
Love, love
I'll shove it down your throat
Love, love
I'll shove it down your throat

I can't remember
What I did
Who I f*cked
What I said to your face
You know, it's all a big blur

I can't remember
What I ate
What I drank
What I chewed on, spit out
It's all a big blur
I can't remember
If I stumbled
If I fell
Did I drag you along?

You know, it's all big blur

I can't remember
What I ever did
To make you think this
Would ever last
When you knew from the start
I'm just an insect in an empty world
Wish I had a million mouths
I'll suck you off 'til I'm dead and you're dry

I'm all about the excess, baby
I know you don't want it this way
But let me show you just how I
Love, love
I'll shove it down your throat

I'm all about the excess, baby
I know you don't want it this way
But let me show you just how I
Love, love
I'll shove it down your throat
Love, love
I'll shove it down your throat
(I f*ck first, ask questions last...)

'Cause I
I don't
Feel anything
Yeah, I don't
Feel anything

I'm all about the excess, baby
I know you don't want it this way
But let me show you just how I
Love, love
I'll shove it down your throat

I'm all about the excess, baby
I know you don't want it this way
But let me show you just how I
Love, love
I'll shove it down your throat
Love, love
I'll shove it down your throat
Love, love
I'll shove it down your throat
Love, love
I'll shove it down your throat
