Break Our Fall

Dispatch

I remember that night
You fell asleep under the truck when it got late
In the morning When I pulled out to look for you thank God I rolled out stra ight

Nothing was ever too much
Doing flips off the roof
It's like you were cheating death left and right, but you still wanted proof

I was thinking about you just yesterday
How you were gonna stop by on your way
I had some things that I wanted to talk you about
I had some things that I wanted to say

But now I stand here in your flannel shirt
Your mom couldn't bear to give it to goodwill
It's not even cold out but I wear it still
You were always there when we hit the wall
Now no one's gonna break our fall

Break our fall
Break our fall
Break our fall
Now no one's gonna break our fall

We laughed until we got drunk, we drank until we fight
Then we'd laugh again over my fat lip, while you were icing your eye

But you got behind the needle, chasing the next high
And then you managed to escape it
You got that job and you married your wife

I was thinking about you just yesterday
How you were gonna stop by on your way
I had some things that I wanted to talk to you about
I had some things that I wanted to say

But now I stand here in your flannel shirt
Your mom couldn't bear to give it to goodwill
It's not even cold but I wear it still
You were always there when we hit the wall
Now no one's gonna break our fall
Break our fall, break our fall
Break our fall
Now no one's gonna break our fall

I'll see you when I see you
Oh this may be
But I won't love you when I love you
No that will always stay the same
I won't feel you when I feel you
'Cause I feel you every day
But I'll see you when I see you
