

Tulsa Picnic

Dispatch

Oh, is that all you need
I was under the belief that we wanted much more
Oh, is that right
Oh, is that a sound that fell from my plate
That buttered the knife

Oh, la da dee da da dum dum, la dee da da dum
Oh, la da dee da da dum dum, la dee da da dum

In the beginning you were close
When you stopped for directions and asked the wrong man
Who swallowed the knife

Oh, la da dee da da dum dum, la dee da da dum
Oh, la da dee da da dum dum, la dee da da dum

Ye bo, is it safe to go outside
If you run from the window
Ye bo, what's your use of time
It's only an echo
It's only an echo

I'm changing inside
I'm changing my mind
I'm changing inside
(I'm changing my mind)
Wait for the light show
(I'm changing inside)
Wait for the light show
(I'm changing my mind)
Wait for the light show in your eye

Ye bo, is it safe to go outside
If you run from the window
Ye bo, what's your use of time
It's only an echo
It's only an echo
It's only an echo

On the way to panic, I found a little tonic
That could seriously turn me around
Join the Tulsa picnic, without your inhibition
And you and I can shindig around
On the way to panic, I found a little tonic
That could seriously turn me around, round
Join the Tulsa picnic, without your inhibition
And you and I can shindig around, round, round, round

Won't you come in
Everyone's here
