

Argent Justice

Distant

At the doors of the temple we fell for the last time
We fell and we couldn't reach it
They took us down into dark
Past everything the light is touching
We all come from the depths of hell
With justice embedded in our steel
We'll take the revenge into our own hands

Prying open the eyes of the public
Forcing witness to mass decide
And ashen thrones
I live to stain internal walls with terror

Shadows of a dying realm
As I exist in a state of constant suffering
Bleed in silence in this maggot infinity
The flame is gone and all life is expelled

Through this lense I see the hellscape surrounding me
An inescapable hunger enveloping my soul
To devour everything in sight
To rip and tear, mass execution in daylight
Rule through the fear that my blade brings, coated in crimson red the blood of the dead
They lay a plenty beneath my feet, final breath's expelled from lungs deplet ed
The sound of bones breaking: music to my ears
Eradicating these demons that haunted me for years
Scraping away my spirit decays with each passing day
I never found a reason to have any fucking faith
I'll never find a way to leave this hellscape
Burn
I'll never find a way to leave this hellscape

Hang the corpses of human meat for all those to see
Bodies piled high as mountains
Tribute the Icon Of Sin
Entrails ridden with maggots and vermin
Smear blood and shit through the streets
God does not reside in this realm of existence

These thoughts of mine just won't stop
The devil in me can't shut up
Humans devour my soul like lust in my bones
I can't stop my taste for blood
So now these empty vessels will pleasure my soul
Oh lucifer please come and take me whole

Upon a soulless throne, no longer sits the one, I slain the Holy child

The existence of the lifeless black soul
I see myself on the sacred battlefield
Where devotion and sins are revealed
The powers proven to end this madness
The rays of light a truth of all the meaning
My justice rages for all to feel

Your false gods will fall
Our mere presence will erase them all
Fall to your knees and hear our call
We will erase them all

I'm heartless
Fuck this earth till it bleeds
Raping this soil like no end to our needs

Nothing will stop me from crushing the pillars that keep up the chosen from bending their knees, get fucked!

Like we've been for years
Centuries leeching and breeding from fear
Wretched, soulless, dark puppeteers
Nothing will stop me I'm burning this bitch to the ground!

Between the moans of earth and aethers wail
Is where the will of tyranny shall wilt - shall wilt
Every drop of blood will be repaid
A head will fall before the red - the motherfucking red parade

I've seen your god
False is his light
I won't be deceived by your lord who carries the cross of shame

The demise of humanity is a never-ending cycle of suffering

Your whole planet will bleed

Your planet will bleed

Your whole planet will bleed...
