

Armageddon

Distant

Were heading for destruction
This is Armageddon
Armageddon

Hates poison seeps through
We become the epitome of ignorance
Fall from the cliff of intellect
Now I see divine revelations
Of the end
Gathered in their masses
To lay gaze upon
The mayhem
Fear of the unforeseen

The very construct
Of the human machine

Shattered beyond
Their firm belief

Under a dying sun
Amidst the rising flames
Before we come undone
Stand firm
Were heading for destruction
Were heading for destruction
Were heading for destruction

Destruction is what they claim
But I see the light emerge from the flames
Contorted they twist the image of peace
The goal of all men to feed the worms underneath

Scatter like roaches in the light
You can no longer deny the signs
An end of an old age
Day zero for the son
This is Armageddon
This is Armageddon
This is Armageddon
This is Armageddon now!

Can't speak my mind as it's racing to fast
For me to catch in hysteria
I ask for nothing but for to see my mind fall black
And end my suffering

In this world
We take for granted
In this world
We set ablaze
In this world
We create our wasteland
How will
We survive now

Under a dying sun

Amidst the rising flames
Before we all come undone
Stand firm
Were heading for destruction now
Were heading for destruction
This is Armageddon
This is Armageddon
