

Slither

Distant

I can't go on, living like this
It feels like I am possessed
But I don't need an exorcist
I just need to leave
Leave

Go away, go away
You need to leave
Go away, go away
You need to leave
Go away, go away
You need to leave

You are the burden I carry around
The anchor that's on my back
You make me feel like my feet
Are casted from concrete

Fucking snake
Go away
I don't need your lies

You will be nothing to me

Hold your tongue you'll mean nothing to me

Slither away from my life
