

The Broken Cross

Distant

I am the antichrist
I am the fucking unholy

I am the violation of all the faith
With my prayers to you I can't prevail
All the sins I have done for this joke of a god
With a broken cross through your neck
I'll show you the blasphemy

No god that could stop me now
Grabbing myself by my neck
To leave this place
Suffering
