The Gnostic Uprising

Distant

This is a moment where we arise!
We are a subjects to the sands of time
They imprisoned the minds and linked us to the hive

Wired to the virus you all are Perished from the within

Been consumed for a thousand time
Yet I never gone weaker
These wires can't pull me down
Because I put down the greatest sacrifice

Blank stares remain
Pupils sliced are left to decay
This is the moment we all arise

Brothers and sisters
Have my sight

I wish for you to see what I have seen
The future of the blinding light
Where the world goes cold and nothing is left

Been consumed for a thousand time
Yet I never gone weaker
These wires can't pull me down

Oh Tyrannt almighty grant us vision
Let the blinding light, rise above the abyss
Cast down your arms for your servants
For we will follow the chosen one

The Swords will clash with unbelievers
For millennia but the sins of the father will prevail
The order will be set in stone for the future is sealed

For the future is sealed

The order will be set in stone for the future is sealed
The order will be set in stone for the future is sealed
The order will be set in stone for the future is sealed
