

The Undying

Distant

Undying - I am undying
Echoes of whispers of fallen and dead - all I hear
Suffering - I am suffering
Screaming in agony but I can hear no sound

No voice can reach me, no hand can touch mine
Panicked - running in circles searching for the end

I am god forsaken, beaten and lost

I wander inside of my mind to finally realize
That I'm undying - I am undying
Echoes of whispers of fallen and dead all I hear
Suffering - I am suffering
Screaming in agony but I can hear no sound

No voice can reach me

I am god forsaken, beaten and lost
I wander inside of my mind
To finally realize the things
That I am undying
I am chosen one by your mindlessness
The chosen one by your mindlessness

Undying - I am undying
Undying - I am undying
Echoes of whispers of fallen and dead all I hear
Suffering - I am suffering
Screaming in agony but I can hear no sound

Undying
Undying
Suffering
You will suffer with me

The voices return, they won't give me sleep
I'm reaching towards the light at the end

I lost my human touch

I am the one and only that can silence your cries
I am the one and only that can silence your cries forever
Ascend through the entities
Embrace the dancing with the living dead

Condemn, command and conquer

I am god forsaken
I have forsaken me
