

Vermilion Rivers

Distant

We are the nightmares
That hunger for your hope
The taste of revenge
Is on the tip of the serpent's tongue

The waters run like a bloodstream
Of the fucking damned
Never ending flow of chaos
In perpetual suffering

Open your eyes and witness
The rebirth of the architect
Crawling from the rift of desolation
Witness the infinite end

Gaze into the void
Behold the absolute end
Perpetual torment
Feed their civilizations with blood of their lord

Behold, the end I bring
Down on your kind
Behold, the absolute end
