

Leech

Distinguisher

You came out of nowhere
Leaving me numb to your feeding
Continuously
You're the leech on my life

You fucking leech

You came out of nowhere
Leaving me numb to your feeding
Continuously
You're the leech on my life

I shouldn't have stuck with what I found
Your vast intelligence rooted me in your ground
You developed a bloodthirst
Then I became cursed
From diving in headfirst
My head's about to fucking burst

You never realized
All the pain you caused me
Why don't you get it over with
Swallow me whole

You're the leech on my life

Thinking back to the start
You weren't much of a threat
Until I realized that our connection
Was just full of regret

That's when my happiness started to fade away

I watched my mood fade to grey
I'm left with nothing else to say
All you've done is lead me astray
Please just get out of my way

You came out of nowhere
Leaving me numb to your feeding
Continuously
You're the leech on my life

I'm finally leaving
