

Split

Distinguisher

Split to the nerve
Let me rot in the dirt
Fuck

I think I'm losing touch
Insanity is boiling within my blood
Just a step away
From the razor's edge
The only way to cope
Obsession with the rope

Don't go
For in your absence, I feel my body grow so cold
It grows
The poison of your rage
Fill my veins until I choke

I am anxiously waiting
For the day
That the tension buried in my bones
Begins the process
Of melting away
Maybe I will have peace upon my decay

Crawl like the serpent
Wrap yourself around my spine (my spine)
All the pain you left with me
I will make it mine

Crawling underneath
I feel it in my bones
It sickens me
Raw and exposed
No longer in control
Can't get enough

Now you've gone and struck a nerve
In love with the anger in my blood
Last words, singing me to sleep again
I hope you burn, it's what you deserve

Don't go
For in your absence, I feel my body grow so cold
It grows
The poison of your rage
Fill my veins until I choke

Crawl like the serpent
Wrap yourself around my spine (my spine)
All the pain you left with me
I will make it mine

I am free
From my chains
But I have lost my mind
Split to the nerve

Split to the nerve

Let me rot in the dirt

Let me rot
