

Illusion's End

Diva Destruction

This was, this was my dream's plan
Thought i'd risk it all here
Though i could see the storm winds
Blowing, all blowing
Wish i'd trusted in me more
It was here all along

This is my, this is my
This is my time to break free
And build a new way
It's full circle now Illusion's End
My trust, my trust so naive
My hope, my hope too blind
All my power all buried in
Fear's web, in fear's web
No more endless chances
Such a high price to pay.
