Tonight

Verse 1
It's been 9'Oclock ,your door is still closed
I can see the moonlight shining through
The Windows
Sitting right here at the livingroom,listenin
To your voice over the radio
So spicing and juicing x2
I know you want it tonight,trust it ,pray for it
But don't just bring your Friends
The door is still open,your cloths is still here
Perfumes
And i trust the words from you,everything
Will go smoothly
The party will be on
Me and you
I would be sitting here
Me and you
I can smell your perfume,right from far..

Chorus
Oh baby you can dinne with me for life
Oh baby can you ride with me Tonight
Love baby you can try tobe now
I know that you care too much

Verse 2
Candles lites up everywhere
I heard the car pulled up right the driveway
So i walked into the livingroom
I saw the girl walking outta of her car
So she walked towards the door
She was so sexy like i've never saw before
Tonight is the night,the night i planned for it
Ooooh oooh....
The way she walks
The way she smiles
The way she laughs
It makes my day,nor it bright my future
I wanna spent with you
She can be my wifey or she canbe whatever
Thing i planned her tobe
Lets go see your parents,because am ready
For it
Cuz tonight will be the night
