

Hollow Pricks

Division of Laura Lee

My mind is blank it's hard to think
I need to set myself into instant sleep
To wake up enriched, enriched, enriched
I need to wake up rich
And say bye bye bye bye
You hollow pricks
Cause i'm D.I.Y and I'm not yours to fix
I got my own plans, thoughts, ideas on how

To make us all be real and forever stay true to keep on wasting time on what we do
Same dreams, same love as always we will prove we're not like y ou

I don't give a shit about what's a fact
And I know I'm way too old to act like that
But I still refuse, refuse, I refuse
And I won't try to pretend
To be with ease with complains
Cause I'm D.I.Y and i'm not yours to fix
I got my own plans, thoughts, ideas on how

time on what we do
Same dreams, same love as always we will prove we're not like y
