

Last Words

Dixie D'Amelio

Never gonna be a Juliet
That was somethin' from another time
It's takin' all of me to keep it in (Keep it in)
I've been feel this way for a while

Why are the voices so loud?
How can I turn them all down?
This time I'm breaking down

I can't take it no longer
I'm here giving my last words
I'm done fighting this time
So goodnight
I'm just tryna be stronger
Letting go makes me wonder
Face my demons inside
Tonight, I choose another life

Know you'll never be a Romeo but Even God knows that you tried
So I'm doing this for myself and
I don't ever wanna have to lie

Why are the voices so loud?
How can I turn them all down?
This time I'm breaking down

I can't take it no longer
I'm here giving my last words
I'm done fighting this time
So goodnight
I'm just tryna be stronger
Letting go makes me wonder
Face my demons inside
Tonight, I choose another life

Goodnight (Got me saying, got me saying)
Goodnight (Got me saying, got me saying)
Goodnight (Yeah)
Goodnight
Goodnight

I can't take it no longer
I'm here giving my last words
I'm done fighting this time
So goodnight
I'm just tryna be stronger
Letting go makes me wonder
Face my demons inside
Tonight, I choose another life
