

God Knows

Dizzee Rascal

Chapter one

Verse one

God knows

Yeah, God knows that I got a good heart
But I do not go for the disrespect
God knows that I been through the blood and the sweat
You bet I'm a nervous wreck
God knows if I say that I come for a check
Then a check is what I expect
God knows I'm a pain in the neck
God knows, better watch your step

God knows that I got a good heart
But I do not go for the disrespect
God knows that I been through the blood and the sweat
You bet I'm a nervous wreck
God knows if I say that I come for a check
Then a check is what I expect
God knows I'm a pain in the neck
God knows, better watch your step, yeah

Gotta be patient
Steady pace and a bit of meditation
I got away from the self medication
But I'm still myself on the odd occasion
Yeah, I'm still myself, not an imitation
Elevation
Headspace in another location
Vacation
Play away, I don't stay in my station
Got a brand new space, it's amazing
Switching up my cadence and my phrasing
Buzz words been chasing the buzz but it's fading
I don't know the last time I went raving
But the last couple nights I've been craving
I don't care what manor you were raised in
Or your claiming
Everybody in the manor's complaining
And it's draining

I'm not a cave man, I will never cave in Plain sailing, I'm not slavin'
And if I spend my whole life savings
I could never buy the Lambo' four by four
And every God damn color it came in
But I'm good for the days that it's rainin'
And I'm the reining champ, no trainin'
I'm a natural, look at 'em failin' and flailin'
Trying hard but you ain't maintaining
Everybody but you that you're blaming
Your behaviors lame
It's a shame, you can say it's degradin'
Do your own brain in
No brainer, you'll get a canin'
Get slick, get split in your cranium
They're like, Jesus, somebody save him

God knows that I got a good heart
But I do not go for the disrespect
God knows that I been through the blood and the sweat
You bet I'm a nervous wreck
God knows if I say that I come for a check
Then a check is what I expect
God knows I'm a pain in the neck
God knows, better watch your step

God knows that I got a good heart
But I do not go for the disrespect
God knows that I been through the blood and the sweat
You bet I'm a nervous wreck
God knows if I say that I come for a check
Then a check is what I expect
God knows I'm a pain in the neck
God knows, better watch your step

Walked in the game like I bet you're gonna respect me
Grime MC in a room full of dubstep guys
Like bet you're gonna accept me
Before the check not one of them checked me
Next album you are gonna reset me
So called bad boys, till they see bad boys
Bad enough everyone here accept me
Common zero, get me, I bet you bet me
Your man couldn't best me, it's best you let me
Play up front like I'm ST, focused and I got drive like Focus ST
You don't know me just 'cause you met me
Racial profiles, man had plenty
You had WAP, that's an aroma you must have
'Cause I kicked it with Aaliyah like Jet Li

Wow, shut up, don't break me
Tired of sets, spent MC's pushin' up chests
Like Raheem, man tryna breastfeed
Simmer down, chill out and R-E-S-T, relax
No emotions, like come on, I can't no relationship wreck me
I phone the motive like yo, come get me
Next minute things on the move like Tetley
(She's got a man but) Tell him test my patience
Turn patient if you test me
Big boy MC, you saw me bring out Dizzee Rascal
Giggs and JME
God knows when I MC it's all love
And I got flows when I MC
Cool guy and that shows when I MC
But diss me and get strong when I MC

God knows that I got a good heart
But I do not go for the disrespect
God knows that I been through the blood and the sweat
You bet I'm a nervous wreck
God knows if I say that I come for a check
Then a check is what I expect
God knows I'm a pain in the neck
God knows, better watch your step

God knows that I got a good heart
But I do not go for the disrespect
God knows that I been through the blood and the sweat
You bet I'm a nervous wreck

God knows if I say that I come for a check
Then a check is what I expect
God knows I'm a pain in the neck
God knows, better watch your step
Yeah
