Dizzee Rascal

Keep that same energy when you see me in the street (See me in the street)
Yeah, uh, yeah
Keep that same energy, let 'em know you play for keeps
Uh, ha, ha, ha
Keep that same energy that you're putting in them tweets
Woo, woo, woo, uh, yeah
Can't waste no energy on these pussyoles and neeks
Woo, ha, ha, ha

Boom, hashtag gas bag, chat my name and back stab
Fat slag hungry for attention, is it that bad? Are you that sad? That's mad
Moving like a mad hag, big man on the internet doing Gossip Girl, that's a mad fad
I can't even keep tabs of these cheap jabs from these sweet lads
I don't even need the ag, they don't even see the bag, it's all gab, call a cab
I just let my balls drag, plus I gave it all I had (Drop, drop, drop it again)
What's worse in person there's no passa, they're just passive
And they flatter, and it's flattering
All cap all chatter any Sass I'll deal with the matter
Can't treat me like any old rapper

Keep that same energy when you see me in the street (See me in the street)

Shock an mc with a thousand volts
They think they can hang at the top with me, so I'm giving them rope
It's funny how all these bad boys turn Usain when the lightning bolts
Ain't scared of a legend, tell 'em if yards involved, I'm currying goats
How they on Twitter but talking road?
How come every single time I see 'em in person suddenly talking goes?
You silver spoons was going for gold
How can you indirect when I thumped up my man you just stood and—
Air Max when I step on souls, Lewis Hamilton with this pole
Get anyone you want involved
Albert Einstein, Isaac Newton, you ain't gonna get this problem solved
Expensive flow, bankrupt companies with these quotes

Handed it proper, hands on the rapper
Fucker, hide your kids, hide your wife
We lurk in the day, we lurk in the night

Keep the same energy, give him a piece of the recipe
Brick that, stuff that, bruck it back
And take it there and bring it again
You ain't my dog
You ain't the family
Back up, slap it, hit him, family
I'm good on the curb, I'm good on the pavement
See me with killys, you know how it goes
King bruukz, back of the roads
Make man shiver, make mans cold
Yeah, you're young, but your bald head said that you're old
You're stressed, chill out, go run up the bread
Hubaada mukta, slap that ting there, anywhere
Anywhere, keep that same energy, we out here
