

California Rain

Dizzy Mizz Lizzy

A standing O for the falling I
A christening pouring from the marble sky
Heaven sent the California rain
A million tears to wash away the bitter pain

Oh such a bittersweet compromise
Such a sparkling dark surprise
Oh ripping a lifeline between the clouds
Start finding a way to stop freaking out

Thunder under bright silhouettes
A grey parade that you're trying to forget
Heaven sent the California rain
It's hard to see it when you need to break the chain

Oh such a bittersweet compromise
Such a sparkling dark surprise
Oh ripping a lifeline between the clouds
Start finding a way to stop freaking out
Freaking out, stop freaking out

If every day is always second to none
Why do I feel like I am jumping the gun?
It's coming back again, it's coming back again
Why do you pick me up by dropping the bomb?
We're killing time until they bring back the sun
It's coming back again, it's coming back again

Oh such a bittersweet compromise
Such a sparkling dark surprise
Oh ripping a lifeline between the clouds
Start finding a way to stop freaking out
