

Forward in Reverse

Dizzy Mizz Lizzy

Something's going on
Now a change is gonna come
But the writing's on the wall
for no one
Forward in reverse
Now I'm last to be the first
And the writing's on the wall
for no one

Into a void
where nobody seems to focus
Into a void
where everyone's in denial I can't believe that nobody seems to notice
I can't believe that
everyone seems to smile

Something's going on
Now a change is gonna come
But the writing's on the wall
for no one

Forward in reverse
Now I'm last to be the first
And the writing's on the wall
for no one

Maybe you will
Maybe you won't be sorry
Maybe you do
Maybe you don't pretend
All that I know
is everyone needs to hurry
All that I know
is soon we will reach the end

Something's going on
A change is gonna come
The writing's on the wall for no one

Forward in reverse
We're last to be the first
The writing's on the wall for no one

Something's going on
A change is gonna come
Last to be the first Going forward in reverse
