

Bigger Than Them

Dizzy Wright

If I used a ghost writer you can call me liar
But I promise you I prolly be mo bigger than them
So I can't get tired still pushing out fire
Honestly man I think I can be bigger than them
We ain't following the crowds we ain't focus on yo style
I ain't tryna fake the funk to bigger than them
When they vibrating low everything moving slow
Let me know we coming to do it bigger than them
(Big big big big)
We coming to do it bigger than them
(Big big big big)
We coming to do it bigger than them
(Big big big big)
We coming to do it bigger than them
(Big big big big)
We coming to do it bigger than them

I'm not devious just need my dividends
My momma need that crib wit a picket fence
I stayed away from all the packs they assembled in It's prolly 'cause these healthy babies that's delivering
I'm ducked off like a Normal citizen
The rhymes that you rap don't match the world that you living in Me I'm some other shit every time I push the pen
I just pop up to give niggas a lil push again
It's a mindset thing
Enjoy yo life you can't get that time back king
Make it worth something gotta work for first string
We be up early
Staying away from the thirst queens
Record good like I play for Jalen hurts team
But it don't mean nothing without Super Bowl ring
10 years plus I'm ready for the big screen
Can you imagine

If I used a ghost writer you can call me liar
But I promise you I prolly be mo bigger than them
So I can't get tired still pushing out fire
Honestly man I think I can be bigger than them
We ain't following the crowds we ain't focus on yo style
I ain't tryna fake the funk to bigger than them
When they vibrating low everything moving slow
Let me know we coming to do it bigger than them
(Big big big big)
We coming to do it bigger than them
(Big big big big)
We coming to do it bigger than them
(Big big big big)
We coming to do it bigger than them
(Big big big big)
We coming to do it bigger than them

Financial freedom I tried to get it with similes and metaphors
Now I'm thinking budgets and elevated credit scores
Moms called me and said let's go in on a property
Need $20k for the down payment probably
Been riding foreign had beamers and Mercedes Benz

I was thinking I had to keep up with the latest trends
I need something cheaper I think I'm bout to trade it in
I'm a player but I don't fuck all of my lady friends
/Never bought ads I got my clients word of mouth
I'm the best musician u probably never heard about
In a competition I'm who u need to worry bout
When I win it I need a rep carpet rolling out
Pretty bitches for the aesthetic a necessity
She can roll it up so I give her the accessories
Everything is mental I'm skilled at telepathy
Doors move because I told them open sesame

If I used a ghost writer you can call me liar
But I promise you I prolly be mo bigger than them
So I can't get tired still pushing out fire
Honestly man I think I can be bigger than them
We ain't following the crowds we ain't focus on yo style
I ain't tryna fake the funk to bigger than them
When they vibrating low everything moving slow
Let me know we coming to do it bigger than them
(Big big big big)
We coming to do it bigger than them
(Big big big big)
We coming to do it bigger than them
(Big big big big)
We coming to do it bigger than them
(Big big big big)
We coming to do it bigger than them
