

Come Up Phareal

Dizzy Wright

In the kitchen and it's Taysty

I need the come up for real, for real
(I need the come up for real)
I need the come up for real, for real
(I need the come up for real)
I need the come up for real, for real
(I need the come up for real)
I need the come up for real, for real
(I need the come up for real)

Can't stop now, don't lose balance
Tell 'em I'm a million dollar talent
Mac Daddy still daddy mackin'
Ass moved on its own so I smacked it
Told me I could get behind it when I want to
Now I'm tryna take away the stress that you going through
Now she's trying to make all my fantasies come true
Gil Scott all on [?] what the tongue do
Real niggas in the building bring it this way
Bitch I was down and below Roddy Rich way
Had to show and tell, put it all on display
Before they fuck around and turn me into an inmate
I just had to cut a nigga off coming at me sideways
He wasn't in it for the endgame
Big bankrolls ain't enough, way past luck
They keep saying "Dizzy doing big things"
Fuck all that drama, I'm on my Black Mamba shit, this is common sense
Rest in peace to Kobe, Gigi, and all of them
I been working so much they like "Don't start with him"
Scared to get too big I can't walk through malls again
Loving my freedom but they think I'm marvelous
Turn up the audience
I gotta [?] when they sleep on me
[?] like this

I need the come up for real, for real
(I need the come up for real)
I need the come up for real, for real
(I need the come up for real)
I need the come up for real, for real
(I need the come up for real)
I need the come up for real, for real
(I need the come up for real)

Don't got no deal, uh-uh
These crazy ass labels, they can't be trusted
Tryna stop my grind
You gon' be surprised when you see me and twenty niggas rush in
We ain't taking "No" for an answer no more
So when I touchdown I'm kicking down doors
I ain't sipping no lean, I ain't selling no dreams
Quit putting that shit in your nose
Let's confront them about their agendas
Can't sit on the bench like I was injured
Jumped in the game and split the defenders
They tried to put my career in a blender

All of that other shit way out if we not gettin' paid out
But it's cool, I've been groovy forever
It's whatever, they know I would never
Yo fuck it, just let it go
I'm always doing shit I don't get credit for
Looking for validation, just be careful bro
Tell you what you want so you sign that check and go
What you think happened to Dizzy?
Yo, fuck all that drama, I'm staying busy
When you see me just know everything litty
I'm pretty sure I can't be replicated
I'm a legend in my city, yeah

I need the come up for real, for real
(I need the come up for real)
I need the come up for real, for real
(I need the come up for real)
I need the come up for real, for real
(I need the come up for real)
I need the come up for real, for real
(I need the come up for real)
