Hitting Trinidad so I hit Trinidad to lock it in

Put the city on my back without ever bending over
You know this Vegas shit I took it worldwide
What you mean
I put my life on the line to be wise
What you mean
Play a stupid game and win a stupid prize
What you mean!
I'm just tryna see who's down for the ride
First off, they got famous legends we ain't have none
Vegas is the city where they came to get they bags from Rolled the dice

They expect success to happen over night
Use to catch me in the club drinking Henny coke and ice
Not now, only popping up if we popping out
I never seen a player put up points when he out of bounds
Hands down!
I don't want the chain I want the land now
Fuck the pin we knocking pins down up at Sam's town YEEEE!
