

Don't Worry

Dizzy Wright

You're creating energy that's working against your soul
You remind me of this godlike entity that I used to know
He used to say
"Don't worry about it, don't worry about it
Don't worry about it, don't worry about it"
He used to say
"Don't worry about it, don't worry about it
Don't worry about it, don't worry about it"
He used to say

Too worried about them things that don't really matter or belong
Every day learn something new, don't be like that, pass it along
When I'm trying to concentrate, I'm taking a puff on something strong
Know knowledge can't be power if you don't share it with no one
I need me time before I have to bust off like a gun
Looking around me still searching for the love but I see none
Demons around me so don't make me have to show you where I'm from Can't get locked in no cage or no dungeon
On that east side where I reside
I know niggas that bust for no reason
I seen niggas switch up like they seasons
Can't be fucking with no one til the weed come

You're creating energy that's working against your soul
You remind me of this godlike entity that I used to know
He used to say
"Don't worry about it, don't worry about it
Don't worry about it, don't worry about it"
He used to say
"Don't worry about it, don't worry about it
Don't worry about it, don't worry about it"
He used to say

Each one, teach one, I gotta keep reaching
You already know
Said I came up from nothing, grew up to something
So I don't really care how it goes
Yeah I took a long way, came from out the hallway
Don't worry what they all say, I know that they salty
I'ma do this all day til them angels call me
I'ma give you all me til I'm dead and gone
Fear is not an option til I'm in the coffin
Counting up my losses, I'ma move with caution
And you know me, I'ma eat with the [?]
Don't ever sleep on your dreams 'cause it's toxic
Remember

You're creating energy that's working against your soul
You remind me of this godlike entity that I used to know
He used to say
"Don't worry about it, don't worry about it
Don't worry about it, don't worry about it"
He used to say
"Don't worry about it, don't worry about it
Don't worry about it, don't worry about it"
