

Dope Talent

Dizzy Wright

Blessed with all the dope talent
Pray they switch their techniques up
Drop so much they can't keep up
Losing count, account balance
Seen the world and world peaced up
What's the squad without the deep one
Rolling weed I gotta keep one
Cause life'll turn you to a savage
Blessed with all the dope talent
Pray they switch their techniques up
Drop so much they can't keep up
Losing count, account balance

I used to think I didn't have it
But I never give up on a challenge
You say I can't do it, I go out and do it
I do what I want, don't ever get it backwards
You must been misinformed
I've been active and animated
Got the cameras waiting
I love myself just like I am
No transformations, I've been patient
Flying right under your radar
If you boss up you cannot be laid off
Fuck what they're saying they try me
Talk all that shit behind me
This shit gon' pay off
The difference between me and them is I don't take a fucking day off
So my nigga keep laughing while I'm giving you classics
Back to back showing compassion
Thank God I'm...
