

Fake Fanbase

Dizzy Wright

They wasn't loyal to me
They wasn't loyal to me
I had a fake fanbase
I had a fake fanbase
They wasn't loyal to me
They wasn't loyal to me
I had a fake fanbase
I had a fake fanbase

I had a fake fanbase that slid wit me cause they seen that I ran wit Hop
They wanted diversity so I popped up and gave niggas everything that I got Didn't know what a juggalo was so when they announced my name everybody was shocked
I was hot I felt like a Bob Marley or a Pac
I'm feeling like Westbrook why not
Fuck it then no pressure
If I gotta prove myself then I bet cha
I make muthafuckas respect us
I make muthafuckas respect us
I'm the one coming with the extras
What a drive and time to be alive
But the things I failed to realize
That my character's still being demonized
By association, they brought me in to be a innovator tryna make it better
Can count on one hand how many studio sessions that we all did together
And that bothered me they all know that bothered me to the core
It wasn't the artistry it was the chemistry that we just lacked in and ignored
But I thank God for the blessings in disguise
Cutting the fake fans from this side
They wasn't loyal to me anyway and I promise that I'm not gone fall for the lies
Open my eyes
(Open my eyes)
Cause I don't want to be remembered for not having no real agenda

They wasn't loyal to me
They wasn't loyal to me
I had a fake fan base
I had a fake base
They wasn't loyal to me
They wasn't loyal to me
I had a fake fanbase
I had a fake fanbase

I had a real fanbase that stuck with me cause they see what I brought to the plate
And I was the younging at times but sometimes I felt like a father with some thing to say
Had to accept it never expected that my life would be filled with grace
Thank you for sticking around and holding me down before I go open the gates
Look it ain't been easy but I never treated this art like it was dash
I just love to be in my bag
Emotions is coming I'm feeling it fast
Mentally paint it I can't let it past
Put it out put it out put it out
Sound like selling that piano for one and half

But I never showed up wearing no mask
Times is changing
Plant seeds got a seed at a banquet
In the gym tryna pull up tankless
Can't fold when life got cold we gave y'all hope not just blankets
But ya'll kept me high in the rankings
He's a legend in the making
I wanna hug and kiss and thank them
Sometimes it's just hard to express it
Carving out my lane through the lessons
Didn't really understand what I missing
But I seen what machines requested
Every journey gotta come with perspective
You can shovel them cards and deck them
You can lose at life and in debt them
I just thank ya'll for the protection that's what loyalty do

They wasn't loyal to me
They wasn't loyal to me
I had a fake fan base
I had a fake base
They wasn't loyal to me
They wasn't loyal to me
I had a fake fanbase
I had a fake fanbase
