

Father Son Relationship

Dizzy Wright

Man, there's nothing like a father-son relationship
Man, there's nothing like a father-son relationship

I'm raising kids thinking about me and my son connection
While the sun is setting, thinking about his one direction
What he'll choose and what he'll lose just to be respected
You'll be confused and that'll fuel you to make the corrections
Teaching you life will be on your side when you least expect it
But when you want it the most, sometimes you'll be met rejection
It's just apart how this go, they call them highs and lows
But your work ethic can dictate how high you go
My only hope is you find someone with a good chakra balance
You know, someone to keep you happy and embrace your talents
Creating a safe environment like you was raised to do
But one day that self love might be your deepest challenge
If you lead with your heart, the other parts will follow Losing people along the way is a hard pill to swallow
But God gives his toughest challenges to the strongest soldiers
When it's in you, not on you, you become the controller
I grew my locks after you 'cause you inspired me
Our antennas got powers, we hit the lottery
See, my father wasn't around to teach me how to be I'm just hoping to raise a man that could be proud of me
Look, son, you got everything you need to succeed in this life
How you gone pick yourself back if you too scared to fall?
You might doubt yourself at time because of what people like Gotta look within when you start to noticing them character flaws
Long as you movin', don't worry about who movin' slow or faster
If you meditate right you'll stop dreaming and you'll start to travel
I ain't trippin I know you gone make mistakes we can't avoid
But find your pace create some space because that's half the battle
Keep yo head up and never forget that you yo fathers boy
I just want you to be a good man, don't live in my shadow
I love you more than life it self, that's on my Adam's apple
You made a man of me, the gift that keeps the family active

If this world ever breaks you down
I always tell 'em "Stay strong"
Remember that I got yo back
No, you don't gotta fight the world on your own

Man, there's nothing like a father-son relationship
(I love you endlessly, you got a friend in me)
Man, there's nothing like a father-son relationship
(Don't be afraid to call on me, you can always talk to me)
Man, there's nothing like a father-son relationship
(I love you endlessly, you got a friend in me)
Man, there's nothing like a father-son relationship
(Don't be afraid to call on me, you can always talk to me)

Note to my son, man. I wanna let you know you're an awesome big brother. You 're an awesome little brother. Just an awesome human being. You know, right now you're only ten years old, man, but the world's gon' start throwing dist ractions and things to try to make you turn you into a bad person. I want yo u to use this song to always stay grounded. Stay humble. Stay positive. And allow yourself to grow. Be graceful with yourself, son. Be graceful with you rself. The world will try to speed you up as fast as they want you to go. Be graceful with your pace and the way you carry yourself. You know what I'm saying? It's gon' be tough but you got this, man. God gives the toughest challenges to the strongest soldiers. You one of them. Go make the world a better place

If this world ever breaks you down
I always tell 'em "Stay strong"
Remember that I got yo back
No, you don't gotta fight the world on your own

Man, there's nothing like a father-son relationship
(I love you endlessly, you got a friend in me)
Man, there's nothing like a father-son relationship
(Don't be afraid to call on me, you can always talk to me)
Man, there's nothing like a father-son relationship
(I love you endlessly, you got a friend in me)
Man, there's nothing like a father-son relationship
(Don't be afraid to call on me, you can always talk to me)