

LATELY

Dizzy Wright

I just need a break
Some time away from
To find myself again
No idea where I'm going
But I'm hopin' for the best
All these trees that I be smokin'
Got me higher than a jet
I be chillin' in the clouds
Somewhere way above your head

I've been dealing with some things
You prolly wouldn't understand
Wakin' up every day
And nothin' ever go to plan
Going round in a circle
Like I'm running on a track
Problems never go away
They just keep on comin' back

Boutta lose my fuckin' mind
Someone just give me a reason
I'm so fuckin' tired
But you'll never catch me sleepin'
Hard to get some rest
When you're battling with demons
Yeah, I been depressed
And it really ain't a secret

I been a low lately
Can't pick up my phone lately
I ain't leaving home lately
Just wanna be alone lately
Won't open up the door lately
I been feelin' cold lately
Don't even wanna smoke lately
Don't even wanna roll lately
I'm someone I don't know lately
That's just how it go lately

Lately it's been different for me
With changes that I wasn't really considering (word)

So bringing up these generational curses
In that person that wasn't feeling em
(Yeah)

I used to like to hang out with the homies
We used to pop shit off adrenaline (fosho)

Now I'm deliberately missing the drama
Cause I ain't got time to be hearing it
(That's real)

I thought this shit was a breeze
You just can't be living and not take it serious
(Woah)

Cause when it catch up to you
And you too comfortable
This shit can leave you delirious (right)

They say when creatives create
Don't get in your way
They leave this bitch empty (empty)

They say that clout is a drug
And I'd love to find out
Who been working working against me

Sometimes you gotta stop
And hit an audible (fuck)
Be imperfect or be remarkable
I don't care what they be saying in articles
I'm just being the version of me

If you hungry
It's because they been starving you
I don't really doubt myself
But I started to

Lately they been changing
How all the artists move
I'm just focused on my peace

I been a low lately
Can't pick up my phone lately
I ain't leaving home lately
Just wanna be alone lately
Won't open up the door lately
I been feelin' cold lately
Don't even wanna smoke lately
Don't even wanna roll lately
I'm someone I don't know lately
That's just how it go lately
