

Manifest

Dizzy Wright

Write it down
Write it down, yeah

Write it down, manifest
Inhale the love, exhale the stress
Write it down, manifest
Inhale the love, [?]
Write it down
Write it down, yeah (Yo, yo)
Write it down
Write it down, yeah

Yo, this for my niggas that's institutionalized
Play stupid and they want you to be supervised
Lock us in cages, disarm us and neutralize
Learning that rehabilitation's only for the suit and ties
It's been scrutinized
A court room ain't always based off the truth and lies
If only you had more information to utilize
You wouldn't be in this position right now with your mind wiped out
Circumstances change
Took the blame 'cause it's loyalty over everything
The vision blurry when the environment stay the same
You gotta ask yourself "Yo, what you really tryna gain?"
Look where you at, you lost your freedom, time to write it down
Demons inside you that you ain't know you was fighting now
We live and learn and grow up to know that's what life's about
I hope you mean what you say when you tell me you gon' find a better way
Brodie, write it down

Write it down, manifest (Yeah)
Inhale the love, exhale the stress (Real talk)
Write it down, manifest
Inhale the love, [?]
Write it down
Write it down, yeah
Write it down (Yeah, yeah, yeah)
Write it down, yeah

Brand new white board
Writing down my goals and the things I'll die for Quit playing tug and war with your life and decide more
Manifestation start becoming your life source
Striking the right chords
Some won't do it, your old life renewing
He can't help it, no one in his corner but still they call him selfish
If only they knew
It's confusing when you see a blessed person with a judgmental view
Look at the hand you was dealt, how can you blame yourself?
Who thought it would all change in one night?
Public defender, man, this ain't a fair fight
I look around and realize that we ain't nothing alike
Praying they don't judge my short temper
I'm learning, I can say it but it feels a lot better when I...

Write it down, manifest
Inhale the love, exhale the stress

Write it down, manifest
Inhale the love, [?]
Write it down
Write it down, yeah
Write it down
Write it down, yeah
