Problems And Blessings

Dizzy Wright

(Nice to meet you, Mr. Freeze)

You move away, you do your thing, just stay connected
Work hard and leave a good example when you exit
Handle your problems like you handle all your blessings
Handle your problems like you handle all your blessings
I'm on my journey but I don't know where I'm headed
Been through some shit that'll bring me down but I won't let it
Handle your problems like you handle all your blessings
Handle your problems like you handle all your blessings

We were scraping for pieces, motivational speeches
Told me take it or leave it
Learn what I learned, but at that time I just felt so defeated
Everyone was eating
My heart was racing and beating
My demons keep trying to get even
Why you trying to find a reason?
Find someone else to step on
Putting in that work, this is not a fight you should bet on My head on straight
Trying to find your peace of mind at times could be a deadly trait
I never doubt myself, it's some things you should never say
Secure my spot with all these godly verses
You wasting money but in your mind I'm sure it's probably worth it
I'm working, who turn the gamers into gangsters?
I remember feeling danger, now I'm feeling more discouraged
Don't feel that way, I feel your pain, I know you aggravated
You'll get your time, by then I hope your mind is activated Overcome tasks, we grew up fast, that's just the saddest statement
One thing I wanna say, enjoy your younger days

You move away, you do your thing, just stay connected
Work hard and leave a good example when you exit
Handle your problems like you handle all your blessings
Handle your problems like you handle all your blessings
I'm on my journey but I don't know where I'm headed
Been through some shit that'll bring me down but I won't let it
Handle your problems like you handle all your blessings
Handle your problems like you handle all your blessings

Shout out to my fans that hit me with the message requests
Number one, I'm never focused on who's second to best
Number two, I moved from Flint and been respectin' the West
I was a freshmen, top ten, but who selected the rest?
The fans chose me, that's why you gotta get 'em direct
Dependin' on your rap, the big chains'll get 'em to melt
A lil' help never hurt if you elevating yourself
That's what I try to tell myself before them cards get dealt
Lace my case, tuck my shirt in, then I tie up my belt
High off life while these other niggas high off wealth
Staying healthy with the health, I'm the one that they idolize
I went from window shopping and now they shopping my Shopify
Common interests bringing out interest and replies
Can't substitute me so she shake that booty on Live
Hard to truly define
They say it's hard to read me, she can't read between the lines

Just take your time when

You move away, you do your thing, just stay connected
Work hard and leave a good example when you exit
Handle your problems like you handle all your blessings
Handle your problems like you handle all your blessings
I'm on my journey but I don't know where I'm headed
Been through some shit that'll bring me down but I won't let it
Handle your problems like you handle all your blessings
Handle your problems like you handle all your blessings

They follow crazy trends
The game done changed again
Tell 'em I came to win
My motivation is to show my kids an amazing man
Hold on, let me take this in
Do what feels good but please don't make the same mistakes I did
Gotta be yourself 'cause you'll go crazy tryna think like them
Don't build bad habits, nah
I thank my coaches for the structure I got from basketball
Yeah, life gets tough, I know
Can't build that empire if you can't make your hustle flow
You make that money fast and forget that that struggle's slow
Write down my humble goals
Then I exaggerate, won't back pace, I'm a rapper, wait, ayy
Well that means I'm getting close
All love to the most high, you know why
Whatever you seem to believe
I just pray they see my work the way it's meant to be seen, through TV scree ns
I'm still moving while these niggas stuck in they routines
Tell my haters I don't give a fuck, livin' out my dreams
