Real niggas don't be bragging bout they cash
They just let the money stack and fill the world
With this honesty
Bitch niggas always gassin bout they action
How they always getting active when they know
Nothing about the streets

It's gonn' be Real niggas v. Bitch niggas [x3]
And you gonna have to pick nigga
It's gonn' be Real niggas v. Bitch niggas [x3]
And you gonna have to pick nigga

Look, in my own world
You can tell I'm in deep thought
See I preach talk and my bigga nigga C-Wok
Teaching me to be street smart
Instead of a thug
Since rapping was my passion they Respected what I was
See I never tried to be somebody I wasn't
These pussy niggas talk to me like they
Be really thuggin
Ignorance is bliss my nigga, yous really frontin
Your negative energy has really got me in the need of somethin
I hope the weed is coming
Because your visuals are becoming predictable
That now I see the bitch in you, see niggas like you
Always lie about what they do
So even when your not lyin it's still gonna sound like the truth
See even as a youth I was the realest in the booth
But my mamma raised a man
So I try to keep it cool, keep it true
Keep it real, keep it trill, keep it lit, nigga
Yeah, ol' bitch ass nigga

Real niggas don't be bragging bout they cash
They just let the money stack and fill the world
With this honesty
Bitch niggas always gassin bout they action
How they always getting active when they know
Nothing about the streets

It's gonn' be Real niggas v. Bitch niggas [x3]
And you gonna have to pick nigga
It's gonn' be Real niggas v. Bitch niggas [x3]
And you gonna have to pick nigga

Look, shits gettin depressin to be seein my people
So reckless cause they be pressin all these bitch ass
Niggas who stay flexin
Now these niggas stressin, but ain't nobody laughing

Real niggas don't run around and talk about who they be clapping
See that's distraction, so why you niggas actin?
Tryna get in trouble? we tryna stay out of caskets
They say the world ending but I don't think it's gonna happen
But if it do I hope the next world get to hear me rappin
Passion, loyalty, glorious, and honesty bitch ass nigga
That's some real nigga qualities
Mamma say she proud of me, so I'm on this balcony
Overlooking my fears, appreciate what's surrounding me
Yeah, my brother down in the county G and all the dreams
He had the whole world found in me
So now I'm grinding for the both of us, ain't nobody close as us
Now they got a real nigga blowing up

Real niggas don't be bragging bout they cash
They just let the money stack and fill the world
With this honesty
Bitch niggas always gassing bout they action
How they always getting active when they know
Nothing about the streets

It's gonn' be Real niggas v. Bitch niggas [x3]
And you gonna have to pick nigga
It's gonn' be Real niggas v. Bitch niggas [x3]
And you gonna have to pick nigga

So if you listen and you feel like I am talking to you
I got bad news my nigga, I am talking to you
Cause you got bitch nigga qualities and the Heart of a dude, so you be talking it up
But never walked in his shoes
I hate mother fuckers who hate mother fuckers
For no reason, but being a bitch nigga these Days is is so easy
Stop it
Fuck who you got problems with, go tweet this shit
Subliminal. Or formspring anonymous cause you
Don't got the balls to stand tall with some confidence
Fucking Carltons, sit down before I smack you
Real nigga talking doing a real nigga job
So when you see me in you hood give me that
Real nigga nod
We ain't never gotta shake, we ain't never gotta face
Cause real recognize real and I ain't never made
A mistake
I do this for the Veg, I do this for the kids
You do this for the fame and I do it for what's Real you a bitch ass nigga
